

A New Partner

It is with great pleasure that we announce Mr. Muyiwa Balogun's admission into partnership in our Firm.

An exemplary leader and assiduous worker, Muyiwa continues in his unalloyed efforts to contribute to the growth of the firm, at the helm of affairs of our Enterprise & Government Practice.

Muyiwa graduated from Ogun State University and joined Olaniwun Ajayi LP in 2000, having previously worked in other law firms. He was head of our Abuja Practice for several years, focusing on all areas of commercial law and dispute resolution, legal aspects of public expenditure management, public sector transactions and government liaison.

Muyiwa also has an insider's understanding of the internal workings of the public sector, having worked for four years with the Budget Office of the Federation, as a Special Assistant to the Special Adviser to the President on Budget Matters, with primary responsibility for advising on the legal aspects of public expenditure management and preparation of the Fiscal Strategy Paper of the Federal Government of Nigeria, between 2003 and 2007.

Mr. Balogun has contributed immensely to the shaping of the fiscal aspect of public policy in Nigeria; he contributed significantly to the Fiscal Responsibility Act and co-designed and co-managed the Medium Term Sector Strategies (MTSS) for 18 ministries of the Federal Government.

Over the last year, Muyiwa has been part of the Olaniwun Ajayi (OA) team, actively engaged in advising the Central Bank of Nigeria, on the on-going reform of the banking sector and he led the OA team in generating the draft of the Asset Management Corporation of Nigeria (AMCON) Bill, currently awaiting presidential assent.
