

Introducing our new partner

We are pleased to announce the admission of Mr. Wolemi Esan into the partnership of the Firm.

Wolemi, a graduate of Lagos State University, and a Jeremy Bentham Scholar of University College London (where he obtained his LL.M) joined the Firm as an associate, and in his 9 years with Olaniwun Ajayi, he has shown marked excellence and uncommon commitment.

Prior to his admission into partnership, Wolemi was a Managing Associate, before which, he was the head of our Specialized Transactions Practice. In the course of his career, Wolemi also worked as a Visiting Associate at the London offices of White & Case LLP.

A thorough professional, Wolemi is widely regarded as a trusted advisor by clients. His practice focuses on legal aspects of finance, with particular emphasis on general corporate finance, project, and structured finance. He is also experienced in litigation and general corporate/commercial law, which puts him in good stead in advising clients in varied spheres, in a balanced and well informed manner, and on a wide range of issues.

Wolemi recently led the Olaniwun Ajayi team that advised on a N150 Billion (USD 1 Billion) financing for a Nigerian conglomerate and is presently at the cutting edge of the revolutionary and unprecedented legal/legislative reforms in the financial sector, advising the Central Bank of Nigeria on its extensive reforms aimed at preventing systemic risk and maintaining financial system stability in Nigeria.

His commitment to the Firm is rare, his diligence boundless, his passion relentless. His years with Olaniwun Ajayi have been heralded by many milestones. Indeed, Wolemi is Blue.

Wolemi is happily married to Omolola, with a son, Fiyemi.

Once again, with great pleasure, we introduce to you Mr. Wolemi Esan, Partner, Olaniwun Ajayi LP.
